Writer needed Squad

Editor:
(Rescue Squad-So what!)

Let me tell you what the Rescue Squad means to me and why.

These people don't work on the Squad from 9 to 5, five days a week.

They work when the people in the County need them.

Try getting very sick on a cold winter night, say with snow on the ground and call the Rescue Squad.

Believe me they will be out there; fighting the weather and roads very soon after you call.

I never gave the Rescue Squad much thought until my family needed them; now a day doesn't pass, that I don't think of them.

One Saturday afternoon, being a fan of boxing, I was settling back to watch a fight between Sugar Ray Leonard and Roberto Duran; to which I said, I wouldn't miss for nothing in the world, WELL, I missed the fight.

I got a call saying my wife had wrecked her car about three miles from the house.

When I got there the Rescue Squad was on the scene and working.

My wife had a bad cut on the forehead, my daughter had a broken pelvis bone and my mother-in-law had very bad bruises. The nice man they hit wasn't hurt. Thank God!

Now stop and think what the Rescue Squad people were doing on this Saturday afternoon when my family needed them;

Maybe they wanted to watch the same fight that I missed, or maybe they were having a cookout in the back yard, or maybe having company over for the afternoon.

Whatever they were doing they stopped to help us, and time and time again they stop to help us all.

But the greatest thing of all is that these people don't get one lousy penny for what they do, they do it for the people in the County because they care!

They need us to do our part, so they can keep giving us the help we need. They need money to keep moving.

So I beg you very-very dearly Don't Wait until you need them to give. Give Now, Help Them So They Can Help Us.

Thank You Appomattox County Rescue Squad.
sincerely,
Danny Miller

Blood mobile slated

Dr. A. Travis Poole, Jr.

To the Public:

Yes, it's time to be making plans to come to our next bloodmobile. If you read the Lynchburg News a couple of weeks ago, you will remember that there is a very real shortage of blood all across the country. There is a shortage in all types but 0 positive is the one most urgently needed. I know you are as proud as I am that Appomattox County is doing our share to provide the blood that is so badly needed. So far we have reached our quota on each visit in 1980, so please let's don't break our record now.

I am so happy to welcome our six first time donors, on our last visit, August 28. They are; LaVerne A. Hamlett, Joan Berryman, Wayne Simpson, Virginia Kress, Karen Marcuson, and Betty O. Johnson. I am looking forward to seeing you again.

Those receiving pins on our visit in August were; Kenneth Thomas Doss, 5 gallon Ruby M. Reynolds, 4 gallon and Ron D. Wheeler, 4 gallon. 3 gallon pin went to Geraldine M. Moore. Those receiving 2 gallon pins were: Richard D. Lawson, Robert Holt, A. G. Gaines, and Lynn M. Lucado. 3 one gallon pins were given to: Donald Lee Bryant, Stephen Roger Lamb, and Donald Wayne Harvey.

As you can see, once you start giving blood, it becomes something that you just really like to do. It is a good feeling to know that you have given the gift of life to another person. It matters not that we do not know that person personally. It is just like giving to the many charitable organizations that we give to. We know that many persons are being helped, but we do not know who they are.

Please don't wait for someone else to do what you know you should be doing. If you have been deferred, come and try again, unless the Red Cross nurse has advised you not to do so. See you on October 27.

Alice C. Martin
Chairman, Blood Services

They are number 1

The Appomattox Mideto has played five football games and have won all five of them. The team calls themselves number 1 and have been just that.

It is not one boy that doesn't play ball, but they all play as a team, together. So boys keep the name number 1 and bring the football all the way home.

Accepts position at Tech

A Stony Creek native has been reassigned to the position of Extension Leader for Orientation in the Cooperative Extension Service at Virginia Tech, effective September 29.

Dr. A. Travis Poole, Jr., former agriculture program leader at Appomattox, was appointed to his new post by Dr. William R. Van Dresser, Dean of Extension at Tech. Dr. Poole's assignment is a step in the reorganization of Extension as suggested last year by the General Assembly's Joint Legislative Audit and Review Commission.

Dr. Poole joined Extension in 1960 as an assistant county agent in Lancaster and Northumberland counties. He served as King William County Agent before being named program leader in agriculture at Appomattox in 1968.

A graduate of Stony Creek High School, Stony Creek, Dr. Poole received a bachelor of science degree in agricultural economics at Virginia Tech in 1960. He was granted a masters degree in the same field of study from Tech in 1969.

In 1979, Dr. Poole completed work for and was granted a Ph.D. degree from Ohio State University. While attending Ohio State, he was granted membership into three honor societies; Gamma Sigma Delta, an agriculture honor society; Phi Kappa Phi, interdisciplinary honor society; and Phi Delta Kappa, education honor society.

Married to the former Calvert King of Emporia, Dr. Poole is the father of two sons - Arnold "Andy" Poole, III, a Virginia Tech sophomore majoring in physical education, and Steven Ware Poole, an Appomattox High School senior. Dr. Poole is the son of Mrs. Ruth M. Poole and the late A. T. "Mike" Poole of Stony Creek.

Dr. Poole was elected to Outstanding Young Men in America in 1971. He is an active member of the Methodist Church and has held several local and district offices in the Ruritan organization.

Pastor Speaks

The Pharisee

By REV. G. E. HUGHES
Red Oak Baptist Church

The parable of the Pharisee and the publican is a contrast between two men. The scripture says: "Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican" (Luke 18:10).

The Pharisees were strict. Paul said that he had always been the strictest of Pharisees when it comes to obedience to Jewish laws and customs. The publicans were tax collectors and were very unpopular with the Jewish people. Mathew was a tax collector. A man speaking of his trip to Europe said humorously he never saw a Cathederal or church there named after Matthew.

There are three places we want to contrast or compare these two men: First. The two men going to church. Second. The two men at church. Third. The two men leaving church.

Let us first compare these two men on their way to church. The Pharisee walks in a very proud manner. The publican who we will call the tax collector walks humbly and in a troubled, worried manner.

Now let us see these two men at church. When the Pharisee arrives the scripture says, "The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess" (Luke 18:11,12). This is the Pharisees prayer. He did not pray to God. He prayed with himself. He was trying to inform God how good he was. Listen to the prayer of the publican or tax collector. "And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner" (Luke 18:13). His prayer was characterized by humility and not self pride. He did not despise his fellow man as he prayed.

And now let us see these two men going home from church. Jesus said that the publican went home a changed man. He repented of his sins. He cried out to God for Mercy and God helped and changed him. The other man, the Pharisee, went home just as he was when he came. His trust was in himself. He ack-nowledged no sin or need of God.

McClary completes patrol

Coast Guard Seaman Paul A. McClary, son of Ann C. and James E. McClary Jr. of Route 4, Box 35A, Appomattox, Va., recently returned from a law enforcement patrol off the East Coast.

He is a crewmember aboard the Coast Guard cutter Reliance, homeported in Yorktown, Va.

During the patrol, the Reliance cruised nearly 2,300 miles, sighted 47 ships, and boarded 17 vessels from four different countries. One, the sailing vessel Persistence, was found to be carrying almost 4.5 tons of marijuana. The boat was seized and turned over to authorities in Boston.

The Reliance is a 210-foot long, medium endurance cutter with a crew of 61. It is the Coast Guard's only reserve training cutter.

McClary joined the Coast Guard in April 1979. His wife, Doris, is the daughter of Thelma Hughes of Route 1, Box 86, also of Appomattox.

Nash completes patrol

Coast Guard Fireman Apprentice Robert R. Nash, son of Robert R. and Eleanor L. Nash of Box 17, Pamplin, Va., recently returned from a law enforcement patrol off the East Coast.

He is a crewmember aboard the Coast Guard cutter Reliance, homeported in Yorktown, Va.

During the patrol, the Reliance cruised nearly 2,300 miles, sighted 47 ships, and boarded 17 vessels from four different countries. One, the sailing vessel Persistence, was found to be carrying almost 4.5 tons of marijuana. The boat was seized and turned over to authorities in Boston.

The Reliance is a 210-foot long, medium endurance cutter with a crew of 61. It is the Coast Guard's only reserve training cutter.

A 1979 graduate of Randolph Henry Senior High School, Charlotte Court House, Va., Nash joined the Coast Guard in February 1980.

YEPT program gets underway

As of Oct. 1, the Lynchburg Community Action Group, Inc., has begun a Youth Employment and Training Program (YEPT) for the economically disadvantaged youth of Appomattox County.

Interested individuals between the ages of 16 and 21 may call Miss Martha Spencer at 352-3642 between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. The YEPT office is located in the school board annex.

"We hope to provide employment and training opportunities for the economically disadvantaged youth of Appomattox County," said Miss Spencer explaining that the program will meet the needs of 17 in-school students and three out-of-school youth.

AHS class honors Miss Moon

The class of 1932 of Appomattox High School, honoring Miss Hazel Moon upon her recent retirement as a missionary nurse and also her birthday, held its 48th reunion Saturday, Sept. 27.

At the end of July, Miss Moon returned from Nigeria, where she served 32 years, and is at home at Spout Spring.

Miss Claudine O'Brien was hostess at her home for a covered dish supper, attended by 13 of the 24 surviving members of Miss Moon's class, husbands, wives, former teachers, and friends. In the late afternoon, Miss O'Brien and Miss Hilda Moore were hostesses at a Coke party in this same home.

When she arrived, a white silk corsage was pinned on Miss Moon. Just prior to the meal, gifts of an antique side chair, a floral print in an antique frame, and a small table lamp, together with a check were presented to the honoree by her class.

Supper, consisting of a variety of delicious dishes prepared by class members, was served buffet style on the lawn, with the double garage converted temporarily into a dining area. On the front of the garage was a large poster proclaiming "Welcome Home Hazel." An arrangement of fall flowers, made by a friend, and bouquets of roses, grown by classmate Dorothy Covington Bona of Bedford, added much to the attractiveness of the setting. The Rev. Omer Burnett, husband of one of the members of the class, returned thanks for the food and the fellowship.

Following dinner, the group assembled in the living room of the hostesses' home to continue the celebration of Miss Moon's retirement and return home. Mrs. Ruby Wooldridge Hamilton presented some highlights in the life of Hazel Moon; Mrs. Helene Welch Harvey spoke on the honoree as a student; and Miss Hilda Moore related an anecdote from Hazel's childhood.

Even as the class of 1932 was endulging in fun and reminiscences, members thought fondly of the deceased classmates, Miss Claudine O'Brien called the names of the eight, pausing to honor their memory: James Langran, Chapman Chilton, W.C. (Billy) Hubbard, Christine Paulette Mosely, Albert O'Brien, Clarkie Evans Ranson, Weselene Young Wooldridge, and Lula Drinkard Gibson. Since the last reunion, the class had also lost by death on of its former teachers, Miss Kate O'Brien.

The 13 members of the class present were: Mandane Anderson, Dorothy Covington Bona, Eloise O'Brien Burnett, Rachel Morris Day, Anne Martin Day, Ruby Wooldridge Hamilton, Ruth Morris Jennings, Willie Jobe, Hazel Moon, Hilda Moore, Vera Kern Moore, Claudine O'Brien, and Blass Ranson. Many who could not attend sent messages which added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

The class was especially honored to have two former teachers, Mrs. Helene Welch Harvey and Mrs. Elaine McDearmon Spencer, present.

After an evening of good food, good fellowship, sprightly conversation, and much reminiscing, all thanked Claudine for her wonderful hospitality and unanimously called for a big celebration in 1982.

Attends Rogers family reunion

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. McClintic of Lynchburg and Mrs. E. C. Rogers of Appomattox attended the Rogers Reunion at the home of Mrs. P. B. Rogers, Shingleton Farms, Waverly, Va. on Sunday, October 5. Among others attending were Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Rogers of Front Royal, Mr. R. L. Rogers of Hopewell, Morgan Rogers of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rogers and sons of Powhatan and Mrs. Carlton Townes and sons of Hopewell. Approximately 125 attended.

Homemakers have Christmas workshop

The public is invited to participate in a Christmas Craft workshop given by the Country Lane Homemakers. The workshop will be held Oct. 21 from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Extension office in Appomattox.

Included in the workshop will be the making of hard candy, Christmas ornaments, counted cross stitch, wreaths and other Christmas ideas.

We were pleased to gain five new members at our September meeting and are looking forward to recruiting additional members at the workshop.

Ruritans hear Railroad Festival program

Railroad Day was main business on top at the Oakville Ruritans meeting on Thursday night.

Mrs. Becky Lawson, chairperson of the Railroad Festival, explained where help was needed and the Ruritans responded as in past years with many volunteers, particularly in lining up the parade.

Ruritans will also be maning the post at Oakville to solicit donations for the Rescue Squad. Ruritans will, as in the past, bring in the yule spirit by having Christmas trees on sale at the plaza beginning December 6.

UDC honors 'real' daughters

The Appomattox Chapter of the United Daughters of Confederacy will hold a Real Daughters luncheon at Maude's Restaurant on Thursday, Oct. 16 at 1:00 p.m.

This will be a regular meeting of the chapter and at this time all Real Daughters of Appomattox County will be recognized and honored.

An effort has been made to contact all Real Daughters but should there be any daughter of a confederate soldier who has not been contacted, please call 352-8934 or 352-8480.

Dance slated at FRCC

There will be a dance on Saturday, October 18, 1980, from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. at the Falling River Country Club for members and their guests, at $11 per couple.

Music will be provided by Clyde & Company of Fredericksburg, Va.

The Social Committee is most excited about obtaining this band for your enjoyment since Clyde Childers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Childers of Appomattox. Come on out and have a good time with your friends and let's give Clyde and his band a big welcome to Falling River Country Club.

ANGELA CAROL THOMPSON, pictured above, received four lovely trophies in two beauty pageants held Sunday, September 28th, in Brookneal.
Competing in the "1980 Miss Autumn" pageant, Angie won First Place. Immediately following the Autumn pageant, the "Little Miss Brookneal" pageant was held in which she received Third Place. Also, awarded during the "Little Miss Brookneal" was a special "Friendship Award" for overall excellance in all age divisions. In addition, she received Second Place in the "Miss Autumn Photogenic".
Sponsoring Angie in the Autumn pageant was the "Times-Virginian Newspaper", "Little Miss Brookneal" "A. J. Skateworld", and the Photogenic - "Thompson's Sporting Goods".
The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Thompson, Angie is a third grade student at Appomattox Elementary School.

AT THE ACEA booth parents may get informational pamphlets supplied by the VEA. Parents will also be asked to sign a list for each school in which they have a child enrolled in Appomattox County.

The school having the highest percentage of parents signing the list will receive a book for the school library.

The following teachers have kindly donated their time to work in the booth - 10:00-11:00 J. Morgan (AES) and B. Dailey (AES), 11:00-12:00 J. Wright (AES) and D. Turner (AES), 12:00-1:00 A. Alvis (AES) and D. Jackson (AES), 1:00-2:00 P. George (AES) and B. Gillam (AES), 2:00-3:00 D. Henderson (PES) and D. Terry (PES), 3:00-4:00 B. Williams (ACHS) and M. Tanner (ACHS).

If you have questions concerning the ACEA booth please contact Lauri Harwood at Appomattox Elem. School.
